Looking West?
Cultural Globalization and Russian Youth Culture
Hilary Pilkington, Elena Omel'chenko, Moya Flynn, Ul'iana Bliudina, and Elena Starkova
Russian youth culture has been a subject of great interest to researchers since 1991, but most studies to date have failed to consider the global context. Looking West? engages theories of cultural globalization to chart how post-Soviet Russia's opening up to the West has been reflected in the cultural practices of its youth.
320 pages • 35 illustrations • $49.95 cloth
Post Communist Cultural Studies Series

Tundra Passages
Gender and History in the Russian Far East
Petra Rethmann
"Post-Soviet ethnography is expanding its gaze, due in part to a surging interest in regions of the former Soviet Union that have been recently opened to the outside world. Petra Rethmann's book represents an important contribution to this expansion. Her book sheds light on a region and group poorly represented in the ethnographic literature, the Koriak of the northeastern part of the Kamchatka Peninsula."
—Ned Searles, American Journal of Sociology
256 pages • 11 illustrations/2 maps • $22.50 paper
Post Communist Cultural Studies Series

Imagining the Nation
History, Modernity, and Revolution in Latvia
Every epoch produces its own notions of social change, and the post-Communist societies of East Europe are no exception. Imagining the Nation explores the fate of contemporary Latvia, a small country with a big story that is relevant for anyone wishing to better understand the nature of post-Communist transitions.
278 pages • 31 illustrations • $35.00 cloth
Post Communist Cultural Studies Series

Up from the Underground
The Culture of Rock Music in Postsocialist Hungary
Anna Szemere
"Up from the Underground demonstrates the theoretical fertility of focusing on music to illuminate the culture of politics and the politics of culture. Anna Szemere makes a major contribution to the sociology of culture in general."
—Simon Frith, Stirling University, Scotland
280 pages • 12 illustrations • $19.95 paper
Post Communist Cultural Studies Series

The Denial of Bosnia
Rusmir Mahmutčehajić
"Rusmir Mahmutčehajić's essay makes a singular and vital contribution to the understanding of the Bosnian War. . . . Mahmutčehajić writes from a privileged vantage point that endows his essay with a particular authority."
—David Campbell, Slavic Review
184 pages • 1 illustration/20 maps • $24.95 cloth
Post Communist Cultural Studies Series

Revolt of the Filmmakers
The Struggle for Artistic Autonomy and the Fall of the Soviet Film Industry
"This book should appeal to Russian-area specialists and Russian film buffs, and it should appeal as well to sociologists of power, social change, and professions and organization. Faraday's readers will find a good story of an important social event and one more piece for theoretical projects."
—Jeffrey K. Hass, Contemporary Sociology
210 pages • 14 illustrations • $18.95 paper
Post Communist Cultural Studies Series
NEW MYTH, NEW WORLD
FROM NIETZSCHE TO STALINISM
Bemice Glatzer Rosenthal
"New Myth, New World is an original and provocative reinterpretation of Nietzsche's central impact on Soviet culture. Rosenthal has read widely and deeply in primary sources running from philosophy, religion, and poetics to political ideology, architecture, and street theater. This is a model of wide-ranging, well-informed historical research."
—John Burt Foster, George Mason University
432 pages • 12 illustrations • $45.00 cloth

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV AND THE CREATION OF A SUPERPOWER
Sergei N. Khrushchev
"The most valuable information which this book provides bears on something that for all its importance rarely emerges from documents, namely, attitudes and ambience—the imponderables that determine how statesmen act."
—Richard Pipes, The Times Literary Supplement
912 pages • 90 illustrations • $25.00 paper

MY SIX YEARS WITH GORBACHEV
Anatoly S. Chernyaev
"Chernyaev's evidence on the coup is only one important element in what may be fairly regarded as the most significant and illuminating memoirs to emerge from the Gorbachev administration. He provides fascinating insights on the internal struggle going on within the Soviet leadership, including the advisors, among whom he was very much on the liberal wing."
—Archie Brown, The Times Literary Supplement
408 pages • $32.50 cloth

RUSSIA'S FIRST CIVIL WAR
THE TIME OF TROUBLES AND THE FOUNDING OF THE ROMANOV DYNASTY
Chester S. L. Dunning
"A sweeping, detailed, readable account of the first Russian civil war and an excellent analysis of the war's causes and development... This one deserves a place on the shelf of anyone interested in the period."
—Martha Luby Lahana, The Russian Review
672 pages • 14 illustrations/9 maps • $55.00 cloth

A PRODIGAL SAINT
FATHER JOHN OF KRONSTADT AND THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE
Nadieszda Kizenko
2000 Heldt Prize Winner, Association for Women in Slavic Studies
"Kizenko manages to intertwine biography, socio-political analysis, theological discussion and Church history to produce a clear and captivating book on a subject that has suffered from a dearth of academic attention."
—Argyrios K. Pisiotis, Kent State University
384 pages • 13 illustrations • $22.50 paper
Penn State Series in Lived Religious Experience

Douglas J. MacEachin
"Douglas MacEachin's analysis of the use of intelligence during the Polish crisis of 1980–81 offers a rare insight into how intelligence impacts on policymaking. This book is a valuable contribution to our understanding of the events leading up to the 1981 martial law."

Our firm offers you the latest Russian books direct from Moscow. Our clients in Great Britain include the British Library, the Bodleian Library, the Brotherton Library at Leeds University, Cambridge University Library, SSEES Library, the Taylor Institution Library in Oxford and several other university libraries. We have also been supplying books for the past ten years to major academic libraries in the USA (Chicago, Columbia, Harvard, Yale), Belgium, Switzerland, Finland, Germany, Italy, Sweden and Norway.

All the books in our weekly lists are available for immediate delivery and are paid for after they have been received.

The subjects we cover are:

- Archaeology & Anthropology
- Politics
- Art (albums and history)
- Psychology
- Literature (texts, criticism, history)
- History
- Dictionaries & Sociology
- Reference Works
- Theology

Our working procedure is as follows:

1. We e-mail you weekly lists of 40 titles, all of which have been published and are available. Prices are quoted in US$.
2. Each entry includes a summary of the book's contents, as for example:

3. To place an order, you e-mail us the number(s) of the book(s) you are interested in and, to avoid possible mistakes, the author's name or the first words of the title, as for instance:

   210510. Chizhova I.B. Sud'ba
4. We post you your books in 3kg parcels (the most economical weight) at a charge of US$10 and e-mail you invoices listing the contents of each parcel.
5. Payment is made to one of our bank accounts in UK, Germany or USA.

To ensure you have no further problems obtaining recent Russian books, all you now need to do is e-mail a request for our lists to:

kozmenko@online.ru

After that you will have no problems with the recent Russian books.

The Land Question in Ukraine and Russia
Stephen K. Wegren ($7.50)
In the Soviet period, Ukraine and Russia had similar agricultural systems. During the 1990s, however, the two diverged, as Russia pursued neo-liberal reforms while Ukraine maintained the Soviet system of agriculture. As we enter a new century, the two nations are likely to remain on divergent paths. With new agrarian reforms introduced in Ukraine in late 1999 and into 2000, Ukraine may pass Russia, although significant obstacles remain.

Statistical Falsification in the Soviet Union: A Comparative Case Study of Projections, Biases, and Trust
Mark B. Tauger ($7.50)
The Soviet system of biological yield harvest estimates has generally been seen as outright falsification imposed to exploit agriculture. Few studies, however, examine this system in detail or in comparative perspective. This paper evaluates the biological yield in light of U.S., German, and earlier Russian harvest statistics, and also the secret annual reports through which farms resisted the biological system. The paper is a valuable case study of the early Stalin years.

Nationalism, Culture, and Religion in Croatia since 1990
Vjeran Pavlaković, editor ($7.50)
Far from being culturally homogeneous, Croatia is home to alternative ethnic, religious, and popular cultural currents, as Vjeran Pavlaković, Vjeko Perica, and Gordana Crnković show in successive chapters. Finally, there is the problematic Tudjman legacy, which, as Sabrina P. Ramet argues in the afterword to this collection, combines both positive and negative elements.

A ten issue subscription is available for $65 ($75 international), payable to the University of Washington. Please add $1.00 for international orders, WA State residents add 8.8% sales tax. Please send orders to the attention of the Managing Editor at:
