Curzon Press

Curzon is a thirty-year-old academic publisher, publishing over 100 new books per year on Asia, the Middle East and the former Soviet countries. With a concentrated focus and a strong commitment to scholarship on these areas, Curzon has grown in recent years to become one of the market leaders in the field.

Curzon has recently launched the BASEES/Curzon Series on Russian and East European Studies, published for the British Association of Slavonic and East European Studies, and edited by Professor Richard Sakwa, University of Kent at Canterbury. New proposals for this series are welcomed.

Peter Sowden, one of Curzon’s editors, is attending the convention, and is very keen to meet scholars who have proposals or ideas for new projects.

The following issues of The Donald W. Treadgold Papers are now available (international orders add $1.00, WA residents add 8.6% sales tax):

Local Self-Government and the State in Modern Russia
Thomas E. Porter and John F. Young ($7.50)
This co-authored study reviews the history of local government reform in modern Russia and highlights the reluctance of political institutions (manifest both in late Imperial Russia and throughout the Soviet period) to foster the development of local self-government.

Nationalism, Culture, and Religion in Croatia since 1990
Vjeran Pavlaković, editor ($7.50)
Far from being culturally homogeneous, Croatia is home to alternative ethnic, religious, and popular cultural currents, as Vjeran Pavlaković, Vjeko Perica, and Gordana Crnković show in successive chapters. Finally, there is the problematic Tudjman legacy, which, as Sabrina P. Ramet argues in the afterword to this collection, combines both positive and negative elements.

Military Threats and Threat Assessment in Russia's New Defense Doctrine and Security Concept
Stephen Blank ($7.50)
Russia's leadership responds to perceived threats with forceful solutions, imperial adventures, and a general hard-line approach to world affairs; this threatens regional security as well as democracy and security inside Russia.

Structure and Exposure: Dilemmas of Democracy in Russia's Television Market
Ellen Mickiewicz ($7.50)
Mickiewicz examines the interaction between shifting intrusiveness on the part of the Russian government and the individual agendas of other media owners.
